

NIL KRAZI finished his racing career and becomes an endurance horse in France, 19th of April 2013

The 6-year old stallion Nil Karazi (Dormane x Kahloucha) moves to one of the most renowned endurance stables managed by the successful endurance trainer Stéphane Chazel. Since many years Stéphane is training on a regular base endurance horses for the members of the ruler family Al Maktoum in Dubai. Buyer of Nil Karazi is an endurance syndicate.

Nil Karazi, 2007 (Dormane x Kahloucha) with his trainer Franziska Aeschbacher. Franziska loved his exceptional character and gave him his nick name "Gentleman".

From France there was an interest in taking Nil Karazi because of his excellent performance pedigree crossing the best French and Tunisian blood and because of the fact that since the age of three, Nil Karazi was competing in racing on an international level without any injuries.

Nil Karazi has a race performance record of 1 win and 9 places out of 16 international starts in the Netherlands, Germany, Belgium and Switzerland. 2011 he was Champion race horse in Switzerland. His full sister Kahrma, 2005 (Dormane x Kahloucha), herself a proven race mare, is actually successfully competing in the Endurance Sport in Italy. Nil Karazi's mother Kahloucha, a Group III winner, is again bred to Dormane for 2014.

We wish Nil Karazi best health, success and good luck in the future.
