On Group I level he won 5 times in France, England and Qatar. His mother Djelmila by Manganate, his herself a multiple Group winner, has a race record of 10 wins. In the meantime Majd Al Arab has his first winning progeny, among them Muntasar out of Danie du Cassou. Muntasar won the Qatar Derby (Group II) and the Qatar Guineas (Group III) in the racing season 2012/13.

Nil Majeed's dam Nil Incipit is a black type mare and mother of 2 winners. One of these two, Nil Ishan Ibn Al Sakbe by Al Sakbe, is black type too. The genetic result of breeding Majd Al Arab to Nil Incipit is a focused line breeding to best French lines combined with an outcross to Amer. The product Nil Majeed is inbred 3x3 to Manganate and to Manganate's full sister Managhi in fourth generation and further on 4x5x4 to Saint Laurent and Mandragore. Additionally in his pedigree appears the mare Mandarine III, grand dam of Dormane and a full sister to Mandragore, the mother of Manganate.
