

Another win for Nil Ashal in the second QATAR NEAR Avenches Race, July 31st 2013

After his win on 17.06.13 with track record over the mile, the five years old Nil Ashal was imposing himself easily for the second time against Fanal El Samawi. The official verdict: “easy” with one length.

Winner Nil Ashal with jockey Aurélien Lemaitre.

Seven horses were declared runners. Six of them were competing over 1800m in the Qatar NEAR (North European Arab Racing) Avenches race, dotated with CHF 7'000.--. The top favorites were six times winner Fanal El Samawi (Ainhoa St. Faust x Octavia El Samawi) bred by the El Samawi stud in Germany and Nil Ashal (Nil Bedouin x Nil Abiat), bred by Nile Arabians, Switzerland. Other favorite was the 9 years old colt Sayf (Kesberoy x Solonge), owned and trained by Anika Daunheimer, Germany. Also a chance got the inexperienced, 4 years old colt Madjy by Dormane, bred and owned by the Swiss Guy Authier. Madjy had up to then two races, one second and one win. Outsider were the two 4 years old fillies Myrtille du Jura (Dormane x Badlato) owned by Guy Authier and Nil Kebira (Dahess – Kahloucha) owned by Stall Golden Arabians.