On September 6th River was ridden by jockey Olivier Plaçais at the last position in the field of 10 horses at the race track of Aarau. Successively they improved their position at the outside. At the home straight River was fighting for the win with the two fillies l'Hexagone and Warrantyte. He passed the finishing line 2.5 length behind the winner l'Hexagone and a neck behind Warrantyte on the third place.

On October 11th at the race track of Maienfeld River's rider was Tim Bürgin. He gave him a similar race as Olivier Plaçais in Aarau with the same result at the end. River was again placed third ¾ lengths behind the winner Quesillo and a neck behind Urquiro.
